

“

The new Glacier instruments from American Eagle Instruments are a gamechanger in scalers and curettes. The extreme sharpness and the angle of the sharp edge make for effective scaling with very low lateral pressure placing much less strain on hands and fingers than any other instrument I have tried. The altered geometry of the blade makes them effective at most angles which makes placement easier in areas that are normally harder to access.

Dina Bräuner (RDH)

Perio Specialist, Private Practice (Denmark)